PRESS RELEASE: APPOINTMENT OF NEW DIRECTORS – RAMASALA RAMATSHOSA & KGOMOTSO MALELE

In a bid to attain greater national representativity across its alumni membership across the higher education sector, the lawful Board of the Higher Education Transformation Network (HETN) hereby announces the appointment of two additional Ex-Officio Directors in the form of Mr Isak Ramafala Ramatshosa and Ms. Kgomotso Malele in line with the current term of the current inaugural Board with effect from 13th April 2016 to the 31st March 2017 when the Network is expected to hold its Inaugural Annual General Meeting (AGM) to elect its new leadership.

Mr Ramatshosa is a North West University (NWU) alumni and practising attorney from Potchefstroom and holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree from North West University (NWU) and is currently about to complete his LLM degree in Labour Law. Prior to commencing his studies, Mr Ramatshosa underwent vast experience in legal education training in labour law, commercial law, civil litigation and criminal law.

Ms. Kgomotso Malele is a University of Cape Town (UCT) alumni and former Model-UN Secretary General of the United Nations Association of South Africa (UCT Chapter), and holds a Bachelor of Business Science (Finance & Accounting) degree with advanced experience in the property, tourism and finance sectors.

We welcome the two new colleagues to the Board and believe they will add value to the activities of the HETN going forward. Ends
